National Philanthropy Day honorees named

The Orange County chapter of the Assn. of Fundraising Professionals, an organization that provides philanthropic support to a variety of nonprofits, announced Orange County philanthropists, business leaders and others who will be honored at the 30th annual National Philanthropy Day Awards Luncheon.

The honorees are:

- Sandy Segerstrom Daniels, founder of the Festival of Children and the Festival of Children Foundation.
- Donnie Crevier, for his outreach to the Boys & Girls Club of Laguna Beach.
- FedEx Cares, for its employee-supported community service program.
- James F. Amato for his volunteerism.
- Rusty Kennedy, founder of Orange County Human Relations.
- HKA Inc. Marketing Communications, founded by Hilary Kaye.
- KIA Motors America for providing team members with paid time off to volunteer with KIA's charity partners in Orange County and across the nation.
- Word & Brown Cos., founded by John Word and Rusty Brown, for supporting nonprofits.
- Anika Ortiz, an 11-year-old who launched Anita's Pink Closet to raise funds for Mariposa Women and Family Center's domestic violence program.

August 25, 2015

The luncheon will be from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. Nov. 19 at Hotel Irvine, 17900 Jamboree Road. Tickets are $75 if purchased by Sept. 30.
