Orange County-based CPA firm nationally recognized for annual revenue; Audit Senior Manager honored with prestigious “40 Under 40” distinction

IRVINE, Calif. – Haskell & White, one of Southern California’s largest independently owned accounting, auditing and tax consulting firms, has been recognized by two industry-leading publications for both organizational and individual accomplishments.

INSIDE Public Accounting has included Haskell & White on its inaugural “IPA 300” list, which includes CPA firms with the highest levels of annual revenue.

CPA Practice Advisor selected Jennifer Cavender, an Audit Senior Manager, as one of 2015’s “40 Under 40,” an honor bestowed on CPAs younger than 40 years old who stand out for their exemplary service. In addition to being recognized for her contributions at Haskell & White, Cavender was chosen for her mentorship to young professionals and contributions to the community through professional and nonprofit organizations.

“I seek to be a mentor to young professionals in this industry, so it’s an honor to receive this national recognition for my efforts at my firm,” Cavender said. “I am thrilled to have a career that is rewarding and fun that allows for a personal life, and I hope this example inspires others in designing their career. “

“In her 15 years at Haskell & White, Jennifer continually has stood out as a leader and mentor in the firm’s Audit Department,” said Managing Partner Wayne Pinnell. “Jennifer is focusing her efforts on growing the firm in Los Angeles County, focusing on the South Bay area.”

These two national honors come on the heels of the following prominent recognitions that the firm has earned over the past year:

- Recognized four years in a row on the Orange County Business Journal’s “Best Places to Work” list for medium-sized companies. This year Haskell & White was ranked fourth on the list.
- Helen Adams, San Diego Area Managing Partner, won the San Diego Business Journal’s Women Who Mean Business Award in the accounting and finance category. She was also a finalist for San Diego Magazine’s “Woman of the Year” distinction.
- Finalist in the Corporate Responsibility category for the Association for Corporate Growth (ACG) Orange County’s annual business awards competition.
